BIENVENUE! We are happy that you have chosen to study French with the Department of French and Francophone Studies at CofC!

Studying another language will give you skills and insights that are useful no matter what you choose to do in life. It gives you an ability to adapt to unfamiliar environments and situations; an improved understanding of English and development of reading and writing skills; a capacity to analyze and think critically; and an ability to communicate more easily with people from other cultures.

Course Description and Objectives

FREN 201 Intermediate French: Develops a basic proficiency in French and familiarity with French culture through practice in the use of the basic language skills and acquisition of vocabulary.

Prerequisite(s): FREN 102, FREN 105, or placement.

This course is intended to deepen students' knowledge of French language and Francophone cultures and is part of the General Education requirement for the College. Students will listen to and read French from a variety of authentic and pedagogical sources representing various areas in France and the Francophone world. By the end of this course, students will be able to sustain basic spoken interactions in French, read intermediate-low texts in French, create short compositions and other media in French, and use their knowledge of French to analyze aspects of French and Francophone cultures.

General Education Student Learning Outcomes

SLO1: Students will read in French.

SLO2: Students will write in French.

SLO3: Students will understand spoken French.

SLO4: Students will use their knowledge of French to analyze the perspectives of historical and/or modern cultures that can be obtained only through reading and/or listening to French.

In this course, students will study:

- Communication strategies on these themes: food/meals; health/daily routine; technology; getting around/directions
- Structures: futur récent, futur simple, conditionnel (review of présent, futur proche, passé composé, imparfait); reflexive verbs; -oir, -ir and -re verbs; comparatives and superlatives; double object pronouns; infinitives; pronouns y and en
- Culture: Francophone regions in Europe and the Americas / Phonics and pronunciation

Common FREN 101-202 Attendance Policy: Due to the communicative nature of this class, attendance is essential to student success. After three absences, excused or unexcused, each subsequent absence will lower your final grade by 1%.

Participation: Classroom participation involves speaking French, paying attention, and participating in assigned activities. Regularly arriving late, getting up during class, and leaving early will negatively impact your participation grade.

Project Activities: Throughout the semester, you will have 4 activity-days in class meant to make you speak and debate on subjects related to the studied unit. More details will be given in class. Grade will be based on your level of participation.

Missed Activity-day policy: If a student is absent on an activity-day, that day will automatically become the dropped score. Should a student miss a second one, that score will become a zero. No make-up will be given.

VHL Central online homework: You are expected to complete all assigned online activities by the designated hour on the due dates listed. Your online homework provides study and practice to reinforce your learning of French. Late submissions will receive a deduction of 25% per day. After the fourth day, no credit will be given for late homework. No excuses.

Tests: 3 Tests cover the material in each unit and include listening, reading, writing, structures, vocabulary and culture.

Missed test policy: If a student is absent on a test day, that test will automatically become the dropped test score. Should a student miss a second test, that test score will become a zero. No make-up tests will be given.

Composition: You will write one in-class composition, which you will be able to rewrite based on feedback from your instructor. Your grade on the draft (out of 20 points) and the rewrite (out of 20 points) will be averaged for your final grade. If you are absent on the day of the in-class composition, you will receive a zero on your draft. Otherwise, you need to make up the composition with your instructor during office hours.

TalkAbroad: You will prepare for and complete four online video conversations with a native French speaker on TalkAbroad. Your instructor will give you an oral evaluation grade based on the audio recordings of your conversations.

Final Exam: The final exam will cover the last unit studied (10%) and will also include a cumulative section (5%) for a total of 15% of your grade. It will be given on the date assigned by the College. All Final Exam rules and regulations apply.

Behavioral expectations including appropriate use of technology: Students are expected to arrive on time and stay for the duration of the class. No unauthorized use of personal technological devices. Please act responsibly and respectfully.

College of Charleston Honor Code and Academic Integrity: Lying, cheating, attempted cheating, and plagiarism are violations of our Honor Code that, when identified, are investigated. Each incident will be examined to determine the degree of deception involved. Incidents where the instructor determines the student's actions are clearly related more to a misunderstanding will be handled by the instructor. A written intervention designed to help prevent the student from repeating the error will be given to the student. The intervention, submitted by form and signed by both the instructor and the student, will be forwarded to the Dean of Students and placed in the student's file.

Cases of suspected academic dishonesty will be reported directly by the instructor and/or others having knowledge of the incident to the Dean of Students. A student found responsible by the Honor Board for academic dishonesty will receive an XF in the course, indicating failure of the course due to academic dishonesty. This grade will appear on the student's transcript for two years after which the student may petition for the X to be expunged. The student may also be placed on disciplinary probation, suspended (temporary removal) or expelled (permanent removal) from the College by the Honor Board.

Students should be aware that unauthorized collaboration--working together without permission-- is a form of cheating. Unless the instructor specifies that students can work together on an assignment, quiz and/or test, no collaboration during the completion of the assignment is permitted. Other forms of cheating include possessing or using an unauthorized study aid (which could include accessing information stored on a cell phone), copying from others' exams, fabricating data, and giving unauthorized assistance.

Research conducted and/or papers written for other classes cannot be used in whole or in part for any assignment in this class without obtaining prior permission from the instructor. Students can find the complete Honor Code and all related processes in the Student Handbook at <http://studentaffairs.cofc.edu/honor-system/studenthandbook/index.php>.

Disability Statement: If a student has a documented disability and requires accommodations, he/she should contact the Center for Disability Services / SNAP for information on appropriate policies and procedures. Disabilities covered may include learning, psychiatric, physical disabilities, or chronic health disorders. Students can contact the Center for Disability Services if they are not certain whether a medical condition/disability qualifies. Address: Center for Disability Services, Lightsey Center, Suite 104, 160 Calhoun Street, Charleston, SC 29401; Phone: 843.953.1431; E-mail: SNAP@cofc.edu.

Spring 2019 Calendar (subject to change): You are expected to prepare each day's material before coming to class.
IMPORTANT DATES: Jan. 14 - last day of add/drop; Mar. 25 - last day to withdraw from a course with a grade of "W"

CONVERSATION CLASSES

We strongly encourage all FREN 201 students to enroll in a section of FREN 201C to take advantage of extra speaking and listening practice. These are one-credit electives that meet once a week and are run by our native French teaching assistants from Versailles. In the conversation elective, students will gain confidence in interacting in French with native speakers through games, activities, and conversations that highlight the vocabulary, grammatical structures, and cultural themes learned in class. Conversation classes begin the third week of the semester. It's not too late to enroll!

TUTORING LAB

Free tutoring is provided at the Foreign Languages Tutoring Lab, Addlestone Library 113. The lab opens the second week of the semester. You need to make an appointment to meet a tutor in the lab. Call 843.953.5635 or book online at csl.cofc.edu

FRENCH CLUB

Love French and can't get enough of it? Future French majors, minors, and all French enthusiasts are welcome to participate in the French club's happenings throughout the semester. While one of the aims of these meetings is to practice speaking French, it is also a time to come together, enjoy one another's company, and celebrate French and Francophone culture. All levels welcome!

 Follow "CofC French Club" on Facebook for event times, locations, and updates!

STUDY ABROAD!

Take part in CofC's many study abroad opportunities to immerse yourself in France and the Francophone world! We offer Faculty-led Semester and Summer Programs (Fall: La Rochelle; Maymester: Provence, Morocco, Martinique; Summer: Paris business internship); semester- or year-long Exchange Programs in Strasbourg, Lille, and Nice; and several Affiliate Programs in various destinations in the Francophone world. Note: prerequisite classes may be required to participate in some of these programs.

Scholarships are available for study abroad! CofC Study Abroad: <http://international.cofc.edu/study-abroad/>

FRANCO-HISPANO HOUSE

Immerse yourself in French (and brush up on your Spanish!) by living in our beautiful Franco-Hispano House on 6 Bull St. It is managed by the Office of Residence Life and Housing. Regular fees for historic houses are charged. All interested students may apply. Residents studying French must agree to use French in the house and to host at least one cultural event per semester in collaboration with the French Club. Please contact Dr. Gilles Glacet for details: JC Long 416; 843.953.5706; glacetg@cofc.edu.

SNAP FRENCH

SNAP French 102, 201, and 202 classes are offered through the Department of French, Francophone, and Italian Studies. Please contact Madame Beeland for a consultation appointment if you are having difficulties in the traditional foreign language classroom setting, if you have ever had any testing done in the past for learning difficulties, or if you are currently receiving services through the SNAP program or the Center for Disability Services. Contact: Caroline V. Beeland, e-mail: beelandc@cofc.edu
